Book-It Repertory Theatre To Present

MRS. CALIBAN

BASED ON THE
NOVEL BY RACHEL INGALLS

A Poignant Look at What Happens When Home Is No Longer Where the Heart Is

[Seattle, Wash., March 3, 2022]— Book-It Repertory Theatre (Book-It) is thrilled to return to in-person, live performance on the Center Theatre stage after postponing their winter show due to the Omicron wave of Covid-19. Adapted by Jeff Award-winning Chicago playwright Frances Limoncelli (she/her) and directed by Gregory Award-winning Seattle favorite Kelly Kitchens (She's Come Undone, Hand to God) this stinging parable grabs your heart and doesn't let go. Running March 23 to April 17, 2022 at the Center Theatre in the Armory at Seattle Center.

"It is my esteemed honor and inestimable joy to welcome audiences back to Book-It with the weird and wonderful Mrs. Caliban. Gothic romance, social satire, monster movie, and none of the above, Rachel Ingalls' tale of Woman and Fish-Man will bring a sense of wonder to the Center Theatre," enthuses Artistic Director Gus Menary (he/him).

A blend of fantasy and domestic politics Mrs. Caliban is, at its core, a work of empathy and humanity. Exquisitely rendered grief is embodied as a backdrop for joy and yearning, survival and belonging. Director Kelly Kitchens explains, "The style is so unique. It deftly balances the familiar and the fantastical, the comic with the tragic, the surreal with the quotidian. It's a clever, taut, masterfully rendered, and beautifully strange tale. It allows us to grieve and to hope, to laugh and to cry—maybe even at the same time. Which feels so necessary to me for the moment in which we find ourselves."

THE STORY

Dorothy lives a perfectly pleasant life. Her husband, Fred, is a perfectly pleasant man. His job is good; her home is spotless; their world is as it should be. As long as you don't mention the children they've lost, then everything is fine. As long as she doesn't yearn for excitement and passion, Dorothy is fine. Until excitement opens her screen door. Standing there is Aquarius the Monsterman (though he prefers Larry), a "gigantic six-foot-seven-inch frog-like creature," and he is divine! Welcoming Larry into her home and her heart is the most natural thing Dorothy can do. And her world will never be the same.
